

As an amatuer radio operator I support removal of any morse code requirements for advancement in priviledges within the hobby.